COURSE OUTLINE

COUR	SE NAME	CORPORA	TE COMMUN	ICATIONS
COUR	SE NUMBER	MKTG 3337	_	DATE	JANUA	ARY 1998
Prepar	red by School o	f Business		Taught to	Part T	ime Studies	_
Schoo	l Business		_	Date Prep	ared	JUNE 1994
Term_	ALL	Hrs/Wk	3	Credits		3
No. of	Weeks1	2	Total Hours_		36
PRERE	EQUISITES NONE						_
COUR	SE OBJECTIVES		,			y .	_
1.	Provide students with a sound understanding of the principles, concepts and terminology used in the field of corporate communications.					d
2.	To introduce students to the broad spectrum covered by the area of corporate communications and how it contributes to the success of the organization.						е
3.	To familiarize students with the role that corporate communications play within an organization and its relationship to other departments within the firm.
EVAL	UATION					*.	_
Class attendance and participation 20 % Viid-Term 20 % Reference Assignment 20 % Project Presentation 40 %

REFERENCE TEXT(S) AND RECOMMENDED EQUIPMENT	_
As there is no textbook required for this course, a list provided by the Instructor.	st of reference texts will be
*
COURSE SUMMARY
This course covers the spectrum of managing the corpor within a business.	ate communications function
Emphasis is on incorporating the communication plan in strategic plan. Corporate communications will be stu- studies and role-playing situations and will be enhanced	died through lectures, case related guests.

REQUIRED TEXT(S) AND MATERIALS

NONE

COURSE OUTLINE - MKTG 3337

(continued)

SESSION	MATERIAL COVERED
1	Overview, Introductions and Project Outline
2	Corporate Strategic Planning and the Corporate Communications Plan
3	Communication Theory, Research and Audits
4	Employee Communications - Improving Trust, Teamwork and Performance
5	Managing Your Corporate Image
6	Mid-Term Exam
7	Managing the Media
8	Managing the Media Case Study Interview Effective Presentations
9	Issues Management and Crisis Communication Techniques
10	Investor Relations and Community Relations
. 11	Project Presentations
12	Project Presentations