MKTG 4437	Current Issues in Entrepreneurship

Course Description

This course introduces Entrepreneurship learners to the realities of self employment, for future use in career paths including contract work, consultancy and careers involving start up of their own business venture.

Three distinct modules will be covered within the course:

Module 1 - provides the learner with several analytical techniques for assessing the market and financial feasibility of new venture concepts, particularly those found in the majority of self employment situations.

Module 2 - a nuts and bolts module to give the learner the practical basics of starting their own venture – including topics such as incorporation, tax, registrations and insurance.

Module 3 - provides the learner with an examination of the key challenges involved in building up a self employment opportunity, including building a customer base, assembling financing, and collections

Evaluation

Final examination	30%	Failure to achieve 50% or more on: the combination of the exams (midterm and final), and the individual assignments/participation marks, will result in a 0% being assigned for all other projects and assignments, resulting in a failing grade for this course.

Learning Resources

Required:

Students must visit the course web site on at least a weekly basis to obtain readings.

Recommended:

There is NO required text for this course. Attendance in lecture therefore is extremely important. You may be asked to retrieve reading material from the Internet. This provides an incentive to explore some of the major web sites you should be familiar with. You are responsible for finding and reading this material.

Information for Students

Assignments: Late assignments, lab reports or projects will not be accepted for marking. Assignments must be done on an individual basis unless otherwise specified by the instructor.

Makeup Tests, Exams or Quizzes: There will be no makeup tests, exams or quizzes. If you miss a test, exam or quiz, you will receive zero marks. Exceptions may be made for documented medical reasons or extenuating circumstances. In such a case, it is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor immediately.

Ethics: BCIT assumes that all students attending the Institute will follow a high standard of ethics. Incidents of cheating or plagiarism may, therefore, result in a grade of zero for the assignment, quiz, test, exam, or project for all parties involved and/or expulsion from the course.

Attendance: The attendance policy as outlined in the current BCIT Calendar will be enforced. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each session. Students not present at that time will be recorded as absent. Missing more than 10% of classes without prior arrangement and consent of your instructor may result in a grade of 0% being assigned for your final exam, equating to a failing grade for this course.

Illness: A doctor's note is required for any illness causing you to miss assignments, quizzes, tests, projects, or exam. At the discretion of the instructor, you may complete the work missed or have the work prorated.

Attempts: Students must successfully complete a course within a maximum of three attempts at the course. Students with two attempts in a single course will be allowed to repeat the course only upon special written permission from the Associate Dean. Students who have not successfully completed a course within three attempts will not be eligible to graduate from the appropriate program.

Course Outline Changes: The material or schedule specified in this course outline may be changed by the instructor. If changes are required, they will be announced in class.
