Learning Resources

For this course, you will be provided, at no cost to you, with six draft learning modules.

- Introduction to technical communication
- Classification
- Cause and effect
- Comparison
- Process
- Interpreting visual data

Required:

You will need a recent edition of an English to English advanced learner's dictionary. Both the Collins Cobuild Advanced Learner's Dictionary and the Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary are acceptable.

You are required to have access to the Internet. You can use BCIT's computer lab in the library on the Burnaby Campus.

Information for Students

Assignments: Late assignments, lab reports or projects will not be accepted for marking. Assignments must be done on an individual basis unless otherwise specified by the instructor.

Makeup Tests, Exams or Quizzes: There will be no makeup tests, exams or quizzes. If you miss a test, exam or quiz, you will receive zero marks. Exceptions may be made for documented medical reasons or extenuating circumstances. In such a case, it is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor immediately.

Ethics: BCIT assumes that all students attending the Institute will follow a high standard of ethics. Incidents of cheating or plagiarism may, therefore, result in a grade of zero for the assignment, quiz, test, exam, or project for all parties involved and/or expulsion from the course.

Attendance: The attendance policy as outlined in the current BCIT Calendar will be enforced. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each session. Students not present at that time will be recorded as absent.

Illness: A doctor's note is required for any illness causing you to miss assignments, quizzes, tests, projects, or exam. At the discretion of the instructor, you may complete the work missed or have the work prorated.

Attempts: Students must successfully complete a course within a maximum of three attempts at the course. Students with two attempts in a single course will be allowed to repeat the course only upon special written permission from the Associate Dean. Students who have not successfully completed a course within three attempts will not be eligible to graduate from the appropriate program.

Course Outline Changes: The material or schedule specified in this course outline may be changed by the instructor. If changes are required, they will be announced in class.

Assignment Details

You are required to complete all assignments—practice and graded—for this course as well as write the midterm and the final exam. In-class assignments must be completed and handed in during the class in which they are given. Any take-home assignments must be submitted at the beginning of the next class.

If you miss an in-class assignment, it is your responsibility to arrange with the instructor to write it in another class or at another time under the instructor's supervision. If you fail to do so, you will receive a grade of zero for the assignment. Assignments received after other students' marked assignments have been returned will receive comments but no grade.

All writing assignments must meet the following requirements:

1. Acceptable Paper. Use lined 8-1/2 by 11" notepaper. If you want to word-process assignments, ask your instructor.
2. Functional Margins and Double-Spaced. Leave 1" margins on all sides of the assignment to allow for marking. Write only on every second line to leave room for the instructor's comments.

Proper Identification. Write your name and course number on the top right hand corner of each page.
