COURSE SUMMARY

COMM 004 consists of 22 four-hour classes -- two evenings a week for 11 weeks. This course is designed to prepare students whose first language is not English for study at BCIT. The course focuses on developing reading, writing, speaking, and study skills required for technical and business communication, with particular emphasis on writing skills. Classes will include activities to promote these skills. You will be given principles and guidelines in each class, and then apply the principles in individual or group exercises.

Successful completion of this course will prepare you for technology and career programs.

NOTE:

If you are planning to enrol in a fulltime program at BCIT, you need to obtain a minimum of 65% in COMM 004. Some programs require a 70% (C), and others require a 75% (C+) in 004. Check with Admissions for more information about prerequisites.

ASSIGNMENT POLICY

1. You will complete a minimum of 10 marked writing assignments in this course, in addition to other unmarked writing exercises and reading exercises.
2. You must complete all assignments to be eligible to pass this course. You will have two types of assignments: in-class or take-home. The in-class assignments must be completed and handed in during the class in which they are given. The take-home assignments must be submitted at the beginning of the next class.
3. Assignments may be handwritten in black or blue ink or wordprocessed.
4. If you miss an in-class assignment, it is your responsibility to arrange with the instructor to write it in another class or at another time under the instructor's supervision. If you fail to do so, you will receive a grade of zero for the assignment.
5. Unless you have obtained an extension, you will be assessed a late penalty of 10% per day for late assignments. Assignments submitted three working days after the due date will receive comments but no grade.

COMM 004 Course Outline: Spring, 1993

PROFESSIONALISM AND PARTICIPATION

- Submit all assignments on time or obtain an extension before the deadline.
- Attend all classes or explain the absence the same way you would have to excuse yourself for not being able to come in to work.
- Treat each other and your instructor with courtesy and consideration.
- Contribute to the success of your course by participating actively in every class.
